

Higher/Further Education Recognition

CPE

The Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE) is a high level examination for learners of English, set at level C2 of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. It is taken by approximately sixty thousand people every year, in more than sixty countries. Like other Cambridge English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) examinations, CPE covers the four main language skills – Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking – as well as knowledge of vocabulary and grammar, and assesses learners' ability to communicate in English in real situations.

For more information on the Certificate of Proficiency in English, visit our website at www.CambridgeESOL.org or contact ESOL Information, University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations, 1 Hills Rd, Cambridge, CB1 2EU, United Kingdom.

Below are details of some of the further and higher education institutions worldwide which recognise the Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE). Many of the following institutions encourage their students to take international examinations such as the CPE. Some institutions recognise CPE for admissions purposes, others recognise CPE as credits towards internal English courses. You should note that requirements for particular further/higher education courses often vary and you should always discuss specific entry or credit details with the institution directly.
